Appomattox Girls Sweep Three Games

The Appomattox County High School girls softball kept their winning ways last week as they won three games and still are undefeated this year. The wins gave them a 5-0 record so far. They started the week by beating Rustburg 19-1 Tuesday here at Appomattox. They went to Gretna Wednesday and returned home with a 24-6 win and Thursday they went to Altavista and returned with a 19-7 win.

In the Rustburg game, Appomattox banged out 18 hits and took advantage of some Rustburg errors for their 19-1 victory. Kay Thomas won her third game as she gave up only six hits and the run was scored on an error. She was also one of the leading hitters for the day as she banged out three hits along with Lucy Martin, Kathy Martin and Leonda Hudson. Lucy and Kathy both scored four runs. Appomattox got off to a three run lead in the first inning, scored one in each the second and third, three more in the fourth and then came up with 11 in the fifth as they got seven hits and Rustburg made three errors also. Rustburg scored their only run in the fourth on an error. Only three players got hits for Rustburg. They were C. Martin, C. McCoy, and K. Sisson, all getting two hits each.

In Wednesday's game against Gretna, they continued to hit the ball by banging out 23 hits in their 24-6 win over Gretna. They were led by Kathy Martin who had four hits including two home runs and scoring three runs, Sharon Johnson, Wanda Hillsman and Becky Harris each had three hits while Leonda Hudson, Glenda Paulette, and Kay Thomas each had two. Kay Thomas was again the winning pitcher giving up 12 hits in winning her fourth game against no setbacks. Most of the runs scored against her in this game was scored on errors. Appomattox batted around in the first inning and scored five runs and Gretna bounced back with four. From the second inning on Appomattox scored at least three in every inning except the seventh when they got only two. D. Shelton, J. Logan, M. Lenier and P. Maynew each had two hits to lead Gretna.

In their last game last week a 19-7 win over Altavista, Lucy Martin pitched and won her first game. She allowed only eight hits, but walked ten to account for most of the Altavista runs, but her teammates gave her plenty of support by getting 19 hits. She and Glenda Paulette led the team with four hits apiece while Wanda Hillsman had three and Sharon Johnson and Becky Harris each had two hits. Appomattox scored in every inning with the fifth and seventy being the big ones with four and five runs respectively. Hunley was the only Altavista player to get two hits as they could not get anything going until the late innings when they scored two in the sixth and three in the seventh.
